Re-Volt Komiks is a monthly anthology created by mangaka and comic artists from around the world who all celebrate the spirit of revolution. By coming together from many different cultures and different nationalities the creators of this anthology hope to show western comic book companies and eastern manga companies our Komiks. N00b of Clandestine - In a time not so far away from today, the internet is a shadow of its former self, corporations and nations are indistinguishable, and the last place for human solitude lies within the unregulated pocket of virtual space that resides within the human mind, The Etha. A game that is passed off as a medical treatment is in truth a world unto itself, untouched by the outside world and indistinguishable from reality and dream. Enter Puck and Goose, two boys who fight in two worlds. Way of Wushu - Chandas master, the man who saved her from a life as a street urchin, is imprisoned by the Celestial Empire for crimes committed in his youth. She sets out to free him by winning the Celestial Tournament; the winner of which can meet the Emperor and make one request of him. But to do so she needs to be recognized and sponsored, which means forging a name for herself. Graphene: Innocent as Sin - In a country run by money of individuals and conglomerates rather than the elected puppets its people put into place, a group of children try to thrive. They reminisce at how the system created to nurture, protect, and love them simply forgot them. Rising against the rules in place was the only way for them to survive in the midst...
