Living Free Publications, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are You Ready for Successful Transition? Are you ready to move forward into 2014? Do you need some practical guidance in how to effectively transition into the coming year with new vision and insights? If so, this workbook can help guide you into the future. Too often transition becomes a roadblock or derailment. Instead of completing one season and moving on to the next, many people find themselves stalled-out and unproductive. They cannot go back, but find it difficult to move forward. But successful transition is possible. God's desire is for you to move from one season to the next with grace, direction and purpose. This book is not simply for recording your New Year's resolutions. Its purpose is to take you far deeper than resolutions that are often short-lived and into a lifestyle of healthy spiritual living beginning right now. Processing through this book can guide you into building on the foundation of your past and establishing healthy habits and attitudes that grow throughout the new year and even beyond. This is an effective tool to assist you on your journey. As you work through this book, it will help you to: Transition out of 2013 with a sense of completion Prepare for 2014 and move forward with grace Set and maintain priorities and goals Recognize and record how God is directing you We all face numerous changes at times in addition to the new year. Transitions occur regularly in life and are varied, such as changing jobs or careers, moving, getting married, having a baby, retiring, getting divorced, experiencing a death in the family, etc. Each new situation brings changes that require...
